

Day was team event

AS a very minor player in Saturday's Wellbeing Day on the small Green, I would like to thank everyone involved in making this happen. It was a team effort, with many people helping out, but in particular, I must mention Cliff Evans and his Rotary colleagues, who undertook the mammoth task of setting up, directing and dismantling the entire event, and Mike Challinor, the chairman of the Health and Wellbeing Group of the Devizes Community Area, and Graeme Morrison, both of whom tirelessly helped make things happen.

We were blessed with wonderful weather, and a steady stream of attendees; the groups and organisations involved all reported positive outcomes, and the comments that I heard were very appreciative of the event, with many saying they had learned a great deal about what goes on for the over-55s in the Devizes Community Area, and had found it very enjoyable and informative.

I think the idea is to repeat this next year, so if you are interested in getting involved, please contact Graeme Morrison, and I'm sure he will keep you informed: graeme.morrison@wiltshire.gov.uk; or get in touch with me at Judy.rose@devizes-tc.gov.uk and I will pass your interest on to the group.
